Sunday, July 5th

10:00am

Celebrating the legacy of Jan Hus, Priest, Confessor, Reformer, Martyr

With Holy Communion in the Church Parking Lot

Once again, with the blessing of our Church Board, we will gather in the church parking lot at 10:00 a.m.

Sunday, July 5th to share in the sacrament of Holy Communion.

We envision our gathering to go as follows:

- We will gather at 10:00 a.m. and all cars will be parked to face the church building
- You will be asked to turn off your engine, roll down your windows and stay in your vehicle, the communion service should not last more than 30 minutes. (hopefully it will not be a very hot morning)
- Everyone is asked to bring a “cup” with you to receive the Communion juice (any size cup will do... if you forget, we will have cups available)
- The liturgy will be given to you, both through email, and in paper copy that morning
- The bread and juice will be served to each parked car (this is not a drive-through)
- We hope the weather will cooperate. If it is raining, we will not have the service.
- Afterward, you are welcome to return home to view the live-stream worship service that will begin at 11:00am

From his appointment to the pulpit at the Bethlehem Chapel in Prague in 1402 until his death on July 6, 1415, Jan Hus tried to reform the Catholic Church of his day through his preaching, teaching and writing.

He challenged the corruption of the church and called for priests and pastors to live as spiritual role models for their flocks.

He aggressively rejected the sale of indulgences and opposed other ways in which the Institutional Church sold spiritual goods.

Most of all, he urged the church to use the Holy Scriptures as the ultimate guide and authority for doctrine and practice. He untiringly preached that mere belief in doctrine or creed is not sufficient for salvation. Faith must be completed in love, by which he meant love for one's neighbor.

When his preaching frightened those who held power in his day, Hus was arrested, tried and convicted.

He committed his soul to Christ and bravely faced the executioner's flames, trusting that his soul would return to the Lord he loved.

Hus believed truth would prevail even if he were killed. The Moravian Church was founded decades after the death of Hus as a new Christian community dedicated to his principles. The Moravian Brethren dedicated their lives to Christ and tried to live according to the teachings of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount. They turned away from the allure of wealth and power and embraced lives of Christian discipleship and self-discipline.

Through the centuries, Moravians have preached Hus's message that faith must be completed in love and they have established congregations dedicated to the simple proclamation of the good news of Jesus Christ and God's unlimited love for all people. The courageous witness of Jan Hus, who gave his life so that the truth would prevail, has inspired Moravians for hundreds of years.

Six hundred and five years after his death, Moravians proclaim Hus as a martyr to the truth, a faithful witness of the gospel and a shining example that Christ's truth for humanity cannot be destroyed by violence.

Enjoy a few perspectives on life:

"If you think you are too small to make a difference, try sleeping with a mosquito." — Dalai Lama

"To succeed in life, you need three things: a wishbone, a backbone and a funny bone." — Reba McEntire

"Get your facts first, then you can distort them as you please."

— Mark Twain

"Even if you are on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there." — Will Rogers

"Nothing is impossible, the word itself says "I'm possible!"

— Audrey Hepburn

"If you don't know where you are going, you might wind up someplace else." — Yogi Berra

And now a perspective from the Psalmist's song of hope:

*How lovely is your dwelling place, LORD Almighty!
My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.
Even the sparrow has found a home,
and the swallow a nest for herself,
where she may have her young - a place near your altar,
LORD Almighty, my King and my God.
Blessed are those who dwell in your house;
they are ever praising you.
Blessed are those whose strength is in you,
whose hearts are set on the right path.
As they pass through the Valley of Baka,
they make it a place of springs;
the autumn rains also cover it with pools.
They go from strength to strength,
till each appears before God in Zion.
Hear my prayer, LORD God Almighty; listen to me, God of Jacob.
Look on our shield, O God; look with favor on your anointed one.
Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere;
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God
than dwell in the tents of the wicked.
For the LORD God is sun and shade;
the LORD bestows favor and honor;
no good thing does God withhold from those whose walk is blameless.
LORD Almighty, blessed is the one who trusts in you.*
