Choir Anthems

“How great the bliss to be a sheep of Jesus,”

Johann Christian Geisler (1729-1815)

Text: Johan Jakob Rambach (1727); Tr. Christian Ignatius Latrobe (1789)

Edited by: Dirk French

*How great the bliss to be a sheep of Jesus,
and to be guided by his shepherd staff!
Earth's greatest honors, howsoe'er they please us,
compared to this are vain and empty chaff.*

*How great the bliss to be a sheep of Jesus,
and to be guided by his shepherd staff.
Yea, what this world can never give,
may through the Shepherd's grace each needy sheep receive.*

"Bread of Life, for Others Broken"

Text and tune: Rt. Rev. Samuel J. Gray. (c) 2000 Used with permission.

Setting by David Blum

*Bread of Life, for others broken, cause us now to plainly see that those words for us were spoken: "Do this in my memory."
Yet, not only in bread broken, now remember we the Son;
let our living be the token that in Him we all are one.*

*Blood of Life, for others given, shed for us, our glorious dress, shed that we might be forgiven, when sincerely we confess.
Yet, not only this cup sharing, now remember we the Son;
may we too, forgiving, caring, carry on what He has done.*

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, amen!
